

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Varietal - Sauvignon Blanc

Region - New Zealand, Marlborough

Soil - New Zealand vineyards thrive on many soil types, from the heavy, clay loams in Northland to dry, to the stony silts of the Wairau Valley. Soils are naturally more acidic and higher in organic matter than those found in other wine-growing regions. Made from selected grapes grown in the rich alluvial soils of New Zealand's

Alc. Vol. - 12.5%

Tasting Notes & Food Pairings

Straw color bright, dry-yet-fruity medium body and a distinctive, long finish with notes of green tomato-guava relish, lemon-grass and verbena, and minerals with fine, silky, fruit tannins and no oak flavor. A very distinctive, super savory. Enjoy this crisp, fresh and fruity white wine with its well balanced acidity. It pairs well with summer salads, seafood and light vegetable dishes. Best served chilled.
